Austin Kiddie Limits

What a trip!

Andy Z & The Andyland Band at Austin City Limits Fest, TX

Greetings to All! Approaching the holiday where so many of us give thanks, I would like to put two musical milestones at the top of my list.

First, the whole band and I got to perform at and attend the internationally-reknowned Austin City Limits Festival in Texas, playing two shows on the Austin Kiddie Limits stage. See some cool pics on the andyz.com Gallery page.

Secondly, I got the opportunity to come full-circle in my family music career when I met two of my mentors for the first time, Bev Bos and Michael Leeman, and attend my first Children's Music Network International Music Conference.

I'm truly blessed, but there's no time to rest! I've got some great public shows in November, and I'm thankful for that! Bring the kids along and enjoy some humor, dance and song for the whole family!
